Greetings,

The Oregon Department of Agriculture is hosting the first annual Oregon Poultry Producer Seminar on Saturday, October 22nd from 9am-4pm at Oregon State University's Oldfield Animal Teaching Facility in Corvallis. A number of speakers from the poultry industry will be covering topics including flock health and management, poultry nutrition, biosecurity, avian influenza, egg and meat sale regulations, and CAFO permitting and regulations. The event is free, and all sizes of producers are encouraged to attend, including prospective producers who do not currently own birds.

I have included a flyer for your reference, but if you would like an electronic copy please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you,

Mariah Crawford, MPH
