

Individualized Education Program (IEP) Training

Wednesday, April 9 @ 6 p.m.

Carl Albert State College, Poteau
F.L. Holton Business Center Room 811

The Pervasive Parenting Center is working with the Oklahoma Parents Center to host an Individualized Education Program (IEP) training Wednesday, April 9 at 6 p.m. This will be held at Carl Albert State College in Poteau in the F.L. Holton Business Center.

Ginger Jagers of the Oklahoma Parents Center will present the training. The event will last approximately three hours and cover issues involved with obtaining IEP and 504 goals.

“One of the main issues parents have when their child has a disability is navigating the school system,” said Kodey Toney, director of the Pervasive Parenting Center. “Since education is one of the most important aspects of a child’s life, the information in an IEP can affect the child’s growth and future. This process can be confusing for seasoned veterans, so we thought this would be a great training to bring to the area.”

Everyone is welcome to attend the event. There will be information that can help not only parents, but teachers and professionals as well.
